Cheung Sha Beach The Long Sands of Lantau Island

Looking for a place for a nice, quiet afternoon? Cheung Sha is just the ideal location!

Cheung Sha lies on the South coast of Lantau Island and is the longest beach in Hong Kong. Cheung Sha is also one of the quieter and cleaner beaches. It offers tremendous views over the South China Sea and plenty of space and facilities for visitors.

Traveler's Code of Ethics

Leave no litter.

You can lay back and chill out throughout the day, or contemplate whether to get up and do anything active. Grown-ups can sit back and enjoy the day, unwind the city life while the children play on the beach building sandcastles. You can also go swimming, hiking, kite surfing, play different water sports or simply just walking along the beach. There are barbecue sites and pavilions where you can eat and enjoy your meal. There are also restaurants and cafes where you can look at the beach and maybe even take a stroll down the sandy white beach afterwards.
