Mount Butler Road,
Jardines' Lookout.

Mount Butler Mountain is an absolutely amazing place. This is a special place for environmental photographers, but anybody can go there as long as you don't mind walking. It is the best place that you could walk through in the whole Jardines' Lookout. You can bring your children along while relaxing and breathing in the fresh air, take scenery pictures, listening to the birds singing, and looking at the natural environment...

The flights of stairs going up the trail

There is no end to this trail. It is quite a long walk. After about 1 hour of walking through the man
