

Scenery: Urban

Sha Tin Photo Point Sui Wo Road, Fo Tan

This is a place located high up on the mountain in Fo Tan, which you can see a 180° view of Sha Tin. You can see the Sha Tin Plaza and the Race Course when you stand at the balcony of the pavilion. It is a peaceful environment where you can enjoy the urban scenery as well as the fresh air like rural areas.

Sha Tin View 5:30pm

Specialty

Some special raw materials came from this small little area. If you're lucky, you might be able to see some of them. There is a lot of vegetation, which can be used for daily essentials. This plant for example, can be used to make a kind of Chinese traditional snack using this as spices. Some times, when you go there in a precise time, you can see people practicing instruments like bagpipes.

Plant for Chinese traditional snack

A man playing bagpipe

Travelers Code of Ethics
Clean up after your dog
No Graffiti Allowed.

The most economical and possible way to get to Scenery Garden would be to take the mini bus 69K from Sha Tin KCR station. Each bus interval takes about 15 minutes most.

How to get to the photo point?

Referring to the map on the back for exact position of the area

Get off from the pink triangle then walk along the road towards the purple star, which is the best position for the perfect shot of the magnificent Sha Tin view. Along the road, you can still see the view of Sha Tin but not as clear when you're actually standing at the balcony of the pavilion.

Scenery: Urban

Scenery Garden, Fo Tan Neighborhood

