UST Mountain Path and Beach

This remote beach lies on the east coast of Kowloon in the Clear Water Bay area, accessible only by a little-known mountain route around the outskirts of the Hong Kong University of Science and Technology. The golden beach is a lone stretch of tranquil serenity, different indeed from the crowded and noisy Silverstrand Beach not too far away. The mountain path is a 20-minute walk (30 minutes going back) of lush trees and greenery along the mountainside, which includes the view of a cascading waterfall.
