

Natural Environment

Sebastian Wei 11KM

www.cis.edu.hk/Sec/ss/Geography/Year10+/Hong_Kong_mini_guides

-Mount Nicholson Road- The Forgotten Walking Trail

Hong Kong, the city of life, the city of light, is known not only for the unique nightlife it possesses, but also as a shopping paradise; however, is there more than what meets the eye? If your looking to escape the noise and crowds of the big city, then Mount Nicholson Road is just around the corner situated in the winding path of Stubbs Road, more specifically at the road intersection right before residential area Tai Pain Court.

Mount Nicholson Road, like any other walking trail one would normally find, has all the common characteristics such as foliage, fauna and even a well paved walking path. However, what makes Mount Nicholson Road so distinct is that it not only over looks the city of Hong Kong, making it an ideal location for walks for those who

Please Note-

- To bring a cell phone incase of injury, and adequate amount of water as there are no stalls selling refreshments

enjoy scenery which depicts the metropolitan city Hong Kong. But also is deserted thus is completely secluded from the ambient din of the busy lives of the citizens of Hong Kong.

Transport

To get to Mount Nicholson Road, the only option would be to take the number 15 double decker bus and get off at the next stop after the Bradbury Jr. School. Once you have left the bus, you will see the Mount Nicholson Road Arrow Post. follow it and you are now on "The Forgotten Walking Trail".

Travelers Code of Ethics

1. Leave no litter
2. Do not collect natural souvenirs

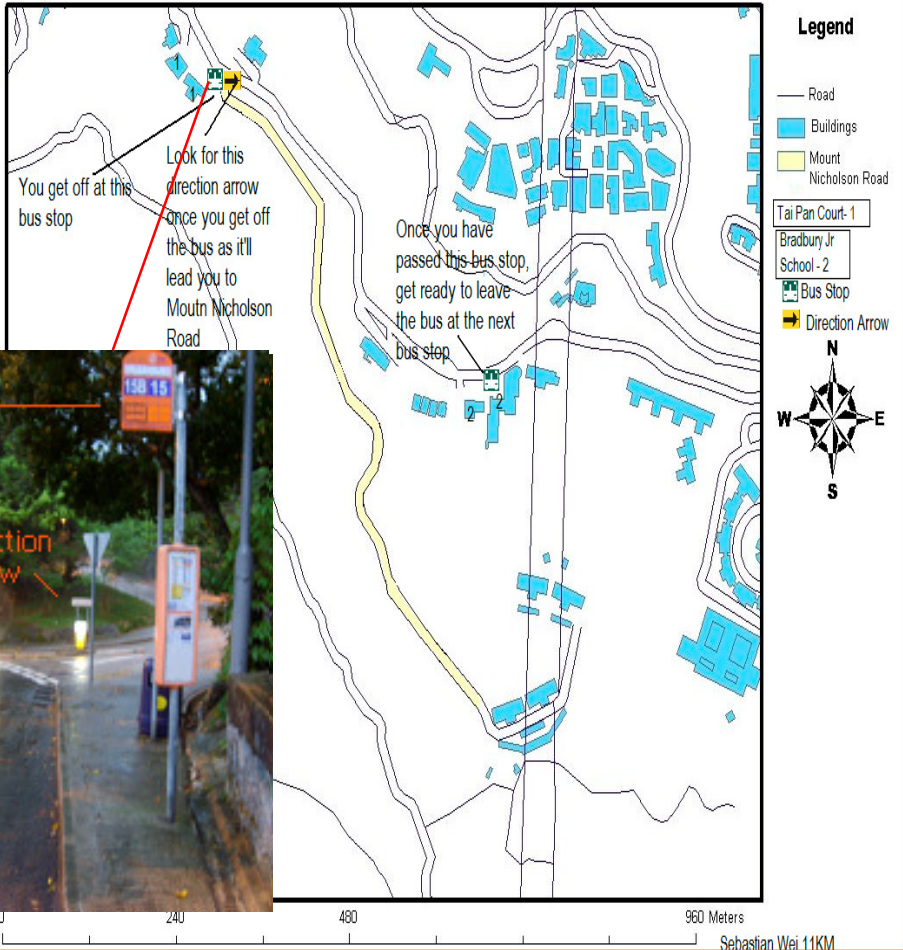

Natural Environment

Sebastian Wei 11KM

Map of Mount Nicholson Road

Location Map of Mount Nicholson Road

Sebastian 11KM
Chinese International School
cis_info@edu.cis.hk