

Food Culture

FOOD STALL NUMBER 3 – 津味

STREET FOOD STALLS

NELSON STREET – MONG KOK (KOWLOON)

Hong Kong has always been a famous country for shopping, food, sight-seeing...etc, it is an international, multi-culture place; in here we have all different types of food from many different countries. But tourist hasn't really fully understood "Hong Kong" 's food culture. They are special, unique and other countries don't have it: "STREET FOOD STALLS"

FOOD STALL NUMBER 2 – 台式 : sells different drinks

The best location to taste all different Street Food Stalls is located in Mong Kok's Nelson Street 奶路臣街 – Kowloon. In that street, you can find many different types of street food stalls, some sell drinks, some sell fish balls and some sell pancakes...etc. The food there has many varieties for you to choose and each of them has its own specialty and taste, plus it also has its own area of expertise, and not all of them sell the same food.

NEIGHBORHOOD

Nelson Street – 奶路臣街 – neighborhood is located in the Mong Kok District, Kowloon. It can be reached by one type of transport: MTR, because cars aren't allowed in Nelson Street.

GETTING TO NELSON STREET

Nelson Street is located near Sai Yeung Choi's South – 西洋菜街, which is also named as Women's Street – 女人街 and its also located on the east side of "LangHam Place Shopping Mall". To take the MTR, you exit from the Mong Kok Station and go to exit E2 Bank Street, then from there you walk straight, cross the road and there you'll be in Nelson Street.

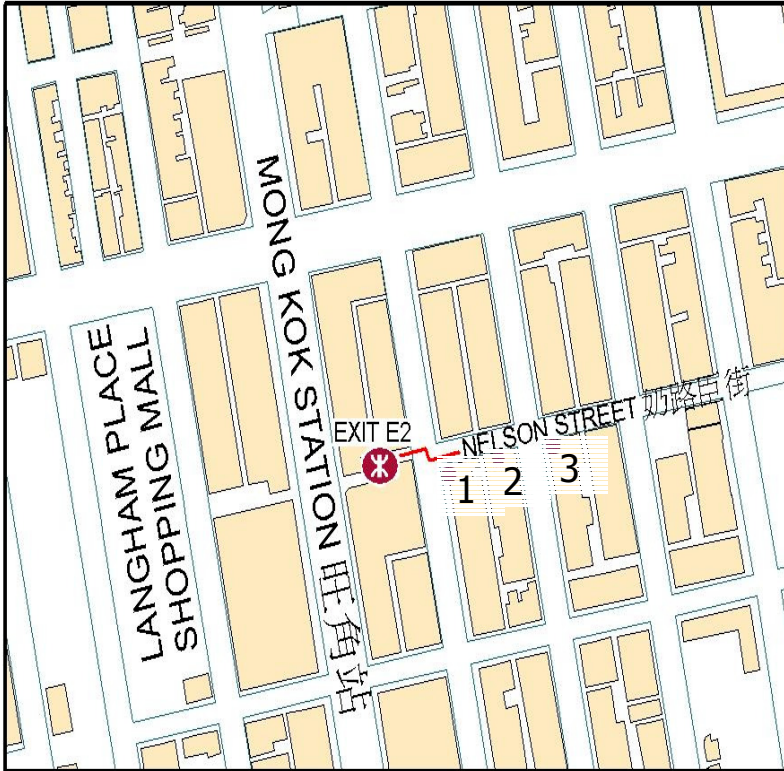

FOOD STALL NUMBER 1 – 美味

Food Culture

Location of Mong Kok – Nelson Street and the Recommended Street Food Stalls to visit

Legend

- road
- coastline
- building
- ⊗ MTR Station
- Recommended Stores

Adrienne 10NC

0 0.000150.0003 0.0006 Decimal Degrees